discussion questions

James 2:14-26

Faith is not belief, faith is living in trust that God will really come through.

- How is James distinguishing a life of faith from a life of work?
- How might James show his faith by his works?
- What does he mean that even the demons believe?
- In vs. 24 James says we are justified by works and faith, how do we square this with Paul saying we are saved by grace through faith and not by works?
- What might a dead faith look like? What might a living faith look like?
